Dear Industrialist,

Kenya has emerged 3rd in the top 20 fastest growing economies. Kenya's economy is set to grow at 6% in 2015 and 6.6% in 2016. Few railway projects, airports expansions, 36 new power stations, transport projects are going to be made in near future. The bilateral trade between Kenya and India stood close to $4.47 billion in 2013-14, with India's exports to Kenya at $4.18 billion. The significant investment has been made in Engineering, technology and manufacturing sector by India.

On the backdrop of significant Indian investment in the region, we are organizing AFRICATECH EXPO 2015 at KICC, Nairobi, Kenya during 24-26 November 2015. This event will be a gateway for companies like yours who wish to expand their market in the East African region. The exhibition will provide the significant value to the exhibiting companies to interact with the buyers, traders, importers, dealers and distributors.

The major sectors of exhibit are:

- * Engineering Goods, Technology, Machinery and Industrial Products.
