

Bombay Chamber of Commerce and Industry's Young Bombay Forum Presents,

“The Young Leaders’ Conclave”*,

On June 8, 2010,

From 9.30 am to 1.30 pm

At the Ballroom of The Taj Mahal Hotel, Apollo Bunder, Mumbai

June 1, 2010 - Launched in September 2007 with a vision to nurture young leaders in India to become globally competitive and contribute towards Nation-building, The Young Bombay Forum (YBF) is the Bombay Chamber of Commerce and Industry's response to foster a positive environment for emergence of young leaders in the spheres of business, environment and politics.

The Mission of Young Bombay Forum is to create a platform of choice for Young Leaders to achieve professional excellence and act as change agents for inclusive and sustainable development.

As a part of the YBF's activities for this year, we are organizing the above mentioned Conclave.

The themes for this year's conclave,

- What does it take to be a Young Leader & perspective for the future
- How can Young Leaders help sustain India's growth in the next decade

Moderated by the prolific Ms Shaili Chopra, Senior Editor and News Anchor of ET Now, the panel comprises a diverse group of high profile young achievers, at the top of their game.

The speakers and panelists at this Young Leaders Conclave Include:

- Mr. Ravi Kiran, CEO, South Asia and Emerging Market Leader - Specialist Solutions at Starcom MediaVest Group
- Mr. Saugata Gupta CEO, Consumer Product Division, Marico India
- Mr. Rahul Bose, Film Actor and Activist
- Ms. Apurva Purohit, CEO, Radio City 91.1 (FM)
- Ms. Devita Saraf, CEO, VU Technologies
- Ms. Ashni Biyani, Design Manager, Future Group
- Ms. Priya Kumar, Corporate Trainer and the CEO & Chief Facilitator of Priya Kumar's Training Systems

We cordially invite you to the Young Leaders Conclave - 2010 and help make this event a grand success.
