MEDIATION TRAINING PROGRAM

with Centre for Mediation &
Conciliation [CMC]

ABOUT CMC

The Centre for Mediation and Conciliation (CMC) provides a much-needed neutral, institutional platform for resolving commercial disputes and wishes to promote an efficient, sustainable, and solution-oriented dispute resolution process, on the lines of ADR, for resolving disputes.

The centre is affiliated with the High Court of Bombay and the City and Sessions Court, Mumbai, as a Mediation Centre and successfully administers court referred commercial mediations. The centre is also recognised by the Ministry of Law & Justice and Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises, Government of India.

The CMC, Bombay Chambers of Commerce & Industry has developed a comprehensive mediation training program for professionals looking to broaden their horizons and skill sets with the tools of Alternate Dispute Resolution, an essential prerequisite for contemporary industry. The program shall consist of teaching and practising the art of negotiation in emotionally testing situations while developing the participants' ability to innovate strategies for building relationships through lectures and interactive discussions. Focus will be placed on developing the ability of the professionals to successfully infuse mediation techniques and make the dispute resolution process more hands-on and hassle free.
