Budget 2025-26 empowers MSMEs, Middle class as engines for industrial growth

In her eighth consecutive Union Budget 2025-26, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman delivered a Budget which reflected the government's strategic focus on empowering MSMEs and implementing comprehensive reforms to foster industrial growth and economic development in India. The Budget also introduced historic income tax changes aimed at benefiting the middle class.

India Energy Week 2025 showcases India's clean cooking gas model: A blueprint for the Global South

Union Minister of Petroleum and Natural Gas, Shri Hardeep Singh Puri chaired a Ministerial Roundtable on Clean Cooking on the second day of India Energy Week 2025. Shri Puri highlighted India's remarkable success in ensuring universal access to clean cooking gas through targeted subsidies, strong political will, digitisation of distribution networks by Oil Marketing Companies (OMCs), and nationwide campaigns promoting cultural shifts towards clean cooking.
