Millions of MSME workers remain uninsured, reveals new data from NI-MSME

Mumbai: Despite employing over 110 million people across India, micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs) continue to fall short in providing basic health protection to their workforce. New data from the National Institute for Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (NI-MSME) shows that fewer than one in 10 MSMEs offer group health insurance to employees, a figure that underscores a significant gap in workplace benefits across the sector. The findings are particularly concerning given the scale of the MSME ecosystem, which comprises more than 63 million enterprises nationwide. While group health insurance is often the first and only form of coverage for salaried workers, most MSME employees remain uninsured, especially those in informal or unregistered businesses.

Union Cabinet approves ₹69,725 crore to revive shipbuilding sector

Mumbai: In a major policy move aimed at revitalising the country's maritime capabilities, the Union Cabinet has approved a ₹69,725 crore package to strengthen India's shipbuilding and maritime infrastructure. The decision marks one of the most substantial investments in the sector to date and reflects a strategic shift toward enhancing domestic capacity, long-term financing, and technical expertise. The package is built around a four-pillar framework that includes extending financial assistance for shipbuilding, establishing dedicated maritime funds, expanding shipyard infrastructure, and implementing legal and policy reforms.
