Mumbai: Leverage artificial intelligence and technology as enablers, rather than fear them, was central to the message delivered by Arundhati Bhattacharya, President and Chief Executive Officer of Salesforce South Asia and former Chairperson of the State Bank of India, at the Bombay Chamber of Commerce and Industry's 190th Foundation Day on December 17, 2025, in Mumbai.

"AI will change the way we work. It is a change here to stay, not to be resisted. If you resist, it will hit you like a tsunami. Resisting it will disempower you. Leaning in will make you far more powerful than otherwise. Ride AI like a surfer," Bhattacharya said, addressing an audience comprising business leaders, policymakers, diplomats, and members of the wider corporate community.
