Budget 2026–27: Record ₹12.2 Lakh Crore Infra Push and Major Boost for MSMEs, Manufacturing

Nirmala Sitharaman Outlines Three 'Kartavya' Priorities to Drive India's Growth, Inclusion and Reform Agenda In her ninth consecutive Union Budget 2026–27, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman delivered a Budget which placed a large emphasis on infrastructure, with the government raising public capital expenditure to ₹12.2 lakh crore for the upcoming fiscal year—an increase of nearly 9 % from the previous year's allocation and a record high aimed at strengthening national infrastructure across roads, railways, ports, metro projects and logistics networks.

Bombay Chamber post-budget webinar: Navigating India's economic outlook amidst global uncertainty

The Bombay Chamber of Commerce and Industry organised a Post-Budget Analysis Webinar on 5 February 2026, bringing together economists, industry leaders, and policy experts to examine the Union Budget 2026–27 and its implications for India's growth trajectory amid an increasingly complex global environment. Delivering the welcome address, Rajiv Anand, on behalf of the Chamber, emphasised that the Union Budget is not merely an annual financial exercise but a strategic statement of national priorities. He noted that post-budget dialogues play a critical role in interpreting policy intent, assessing real-world impact, and enabling businesses to align their strategies with emerging economic priorities.

Commerce and Industry Minister Piyush Goyal urges Export Promotion Councils and Industry bodies to utilize FTAs to gain greater presence in world markets

Union Commerce and Industry Minister Shri Piyush Goyal has urged exporters and industry bodies to take full advantage of the series of Free Trade Agreements signed with developed countries to maximise job creation and boost exports of goods and services. The minister met 35 Export Promotion Councils (EPCs) and key Industry Associations representing India's major export sectors. Industry leaders and association office bearers appreciated the government's trade-promotion initiatives during their interaction with the minister.
