The capital conundrum

The geopolitical upheavals since the launch of Operation Epic Fury on February 28 have brought out India's stark dependency on fuel imports, critical supply chain raw materials, and the "fickleness" of private capital. To be sure, this isn't the first time that the world (and India) has witnessed this state of affairs as evidenced by numerous such events – both related to energy security as well as financial stability – over the last few decades. Moreover, to India's advantage, the macroeconomic fundamentals are in far better shape than on the cusp of all such past global crises. Nevertheless, India needs to confront the myriad economic challenges precipitated by this latest disruption with short- as well as long-term measures.

IRDAI outlines 5As pathway to Insurance for All by 2047 at Bombay Chamber Insurance Summit

Mumbai, May 29, 2026: The Bombay Chamber of Commerce and Industry hosted the Insurance Summit 2026: Enhancing Insurance Penetration & Density in India in Mumbai, bringing together regulators, industry leaders, insurers, reinsurers, technology experts and policymakers to discuss the future of India's insurance sector and the collective journey towards the vision of Insurance for All by 2047. Delivering the keynote address on "The Regulator's Vision for Insurance 2030," Shri Swaminathan Iyer, Member-Life, IRDAI, emphasized that Insurance for All 2047 is not merely a regulatory ambition but an industry-wide mission to ensure that every citizen has access to appropriate life, health and property insurance cover while every enterprise is supported by adequate risk protection.

MSMEs remain the backbone of our economy, says Sunil Mathur at Bombay Chamber MSME Conclave 4.0

Mumbai: Industry leader Sunil Mathur, Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer, Siemens emphasised that India's Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) are poised to play a defining role in the country's emergence as a global manufacturing and export powerhouse. Addressing industry stakeholders, entrepreneurs, and policymakers at Bombay Chamber's MSME Conclave 4.0, Mathur noted that India's strong investments in energy, infrastructure, manufacturing, and technology are creating unprecedented opportunities for MSMEs to expand their presence in international markets.

"MSMEs contribute nearly 60 per cent of India's exports and remain the backbone of our economy. Their growth, modernisation, and global competitiveness will be central to India's economic progress in the coming decades," said Mathur.
